--- In the list of the prosperous there are very few indeed who owe their advancement to talent and sagacity alone. The majority must attribute their rise to a continuation of industry, prudence and good fortune.

--- The horror of instrumental music felt by old-time people, on its introduction, is capitally illustrated by the remark of an old lady, on hearing an organ for the first time: "It is a very pretty box of whistles, but oh! it's an awful way of spending the Sabbath!"

The Wool Clip.

WOOL. Men estimate the clip of the State of Ohio this year to be about thirteen million pounds; being two million pounds greater than the clip of last year. Of this probably about three-fourths have been sold, at prices averaging 48 cents, leaving the finer grades unsold. The sales of wool, with the transportation and incidental charges, will bring more than seven million dollars of good currency into the State.

Remarkable Fleeces.

IN the office of Secretary Perkins of the California Wool Growers' Association is to be seen the fleece of a French merino, only sixteen months old, belonging to Patterson of Alameda county, which, as it lies on the floor, measures six by five feet, and weighs forty-two and a half pounds. The wool, too, is uniformly very fine—perhaps a pound or two at the edges being a little coarser than the rest. We are told that this is the largest single yield of such a sheep ever sheared in the State, with the exception of one which weighed a pound or two more, and was taken from a much older merino, owned by Flint, Bixby & Co. The general average weight of fleeces the world over, is reckoned at four pounds and the average weight of the last year's clip in California is estimated at six pounds per fleece, particularly when taken from so young a sheep, is something to look at. If worked it would make six or seven heavy woolen blankets.—S. F. Bulletin.

Plant an Apple Orchard.

WHEN apples are $3 a barrel and upward, there is not an adequate supply in the country. They can be grown at a dollar a barrel, with profit. The apple crop in a single small county in the State of New York, was worth half a million of dollars last year. Other counties in the Eastern States were under the necessity of paying out $100,000 for this fruit, because they had not the article at home. Peaches and plums we may be able to get along without, but apples we must have—for the dessert, and for the dinner basket of little boys and girls who can not come home from school to dine, and for many other uses. We say, then, to every farmer, plant an orchard of at least one hundred trees. The trees are all ready for you in the nursery, well grown and grafted, two or three years from the bud. Get thirty trees, of varieties that you know will flourish in your locality, and in four years you will be eating fruit from them. Do not fail to plant an apple orchard this very month. American Agriculturist.

A Freak of Lightning.

THE Wheeling Intelligencer is responsible for the following account of a bolt of lightning:

There was a shade tree standing in front of the house supported from the tree to the water conductor of the house. The fluid struck the top of the tree, which it shattered, and passing downward followed the course of the wire to the water conductor. It then passed down the side of the house, tearing the weather-boarding, and entered the room occupied by two ladies and a child. The ladies and the child were thrown from the chair in which they were sitting and violently stunned; the chairs were overturned, the floors of the room were broken as if it had been pounded into splinters with a powerful tilt hammer, and everything in the house was disarranged. A portion of the fluid passed through a bird cage, killing two birds and cutting one squarely in two. After performing these eccentric pranks the fluid passed out the door, which it tore into splinters, and went into the ground. The hole where the fluid entered the earth is large and apparently bottomless.

Don't Steal that Fruit.

"NONSENSE; steal!—why I am only taking a few of these nice strawberries, and just a handful, or a quart or so of these cherries. They are much nicer than we have at home, or can buy in town. You wouldn't call this stealing, would you?" Yes, we do, and the meanest kind of stealing. The persons that will steal fruit, will steal anything else, only give them the chance, where detection is not probable. 'Fruit is nothing,' says one; but while they take it, they forget that very likely, the bread in his house, the carpets, clothing, &c., belonging to the owner, have not cost half so much care, labor and money, as this choice fruit; nor are they so much prized. Don't steal it. If you want, go and ask for some, and if the owner has to spare, ten to one he will give you liberty to gather what you want. Young people should be carefully cautioned by those having the charge of them, to avoid this sin of fruit taking. Nothing is more aggravating to a person, after years of care and money expended, and just as the fruit is ready for his use, than to have it filched from him by some wandering aggressor. Look upon it as a trivial affair, if you can, but it certainly is contemptibly mean, and the community ought to frown down any freedom of the kind, perpetrated in any neighborhood.—Ohio Farmer.

FLANNEL CAKE.—Dissolve two ounces of butter in one quart of milk; and one teaspoonful of salt, four eggs well beaten, half a tea-spoonful of yeast, and flour enough to make a stiff batter, let it rise over night—bake on a hot griddle.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Hartford, Trumbull Co., O., March 7, '87.

I hereby certify that I have been dealing in the Graffenberg medicines for the past year, and can truly say that I have put by the decided approbation of the people like these, particularly the pills and catholicon. They will really perform all and more than is promised for them. I have sold about fifty bottles of the catholicon the past season, and I hear the best results in every case. Urine, in the way of.

Yours truly,
H. C. JOHNSON, Medical Agent.

This certifies that I have used the Graffenberg pills and Marshall's Catholicon, sold here, by J. H. C. Johnson, in my practice, to my entire satisfaction. They are good medicines, and healthy.

Dr. G. W. BUSHNELL,
Hartford, Trumbull Co., O., March 7, 1887.

West Chester, Ohio, Co., May 14, '87.

Mr. H. B. Richardson, Sir—I have been selling the medicines of the Graffenberg Company for the last many years, and have, from time to time, been given great satisfaction; and the pills I have sold to so great many families as regular as their tea and coffee, and with my trade they have become a staple article. Marshall's Uterine Catholicon is a medicine that has done a great amount of good in female diseases. One lady I sold it to told me that she had received more benefit from one bottle than she did from a long course of medical treatment by the most skillful physicians. Yours truly,
JAMES WILSON.

Health of American Women.

Female irregularities, weakness, uterine displacements, and all local uterine difficulties and constitutional disorders of women, are entirely cured by the Graffenberg Marshall's Uterine Catholicon.

In this connection, Miss Bowdler, sister of the Rev. Henry Bowdler, in Letters to the People, page 129, says:

"I have nine sisters and sister-in-laws, and fourteen female cousins, all married, and all delicate and ailing. Amid the immense circle of my friends and acquaintances, I could recall ten married ladies born in this country and country, who are perfectly healthy."

In case, however, where the Graffenberg Catholicon has been used, we must say that health has rapidly taken the place of disease, and ladies have become robust, strong, vigorous, and healthy.

Mrs. Gleason, of Elmira, says: "Beautiful, indeed, is the confiding, trusting nature of woman, but how much does it need to be protected by a watchfulness that will lead her in time of disease to appeal to a medical adviser of scientific education, moral worth and purity of character."

These may be secured by addressing the Graffenberg Company.

I am a Methodist clergyman. My heart has fairly ached to witness the degradation of women as I have traveled my circuit preaching the gospel. I thank God, however, that I have used these medicines and give way to the Graffenberg Marshall's Uterine Catholicon, wherever it has been used.
